to three minutes each.

This report was adopted.

The chair announced that according to the programme, he was to be introduced to the convention. "You will please consider me introduced. (Laughter.) It is unnecessary for me to make a speech. The issues are already joined. That good man, that cheerful politicism, that charming Democrat, William J. Bryan, (applause), with the sunlight of the dawn of better days in his face, is now preaching living truths to all men.

Nothing is necessary for me to say concerning your duty. You will do it as you see the light. I shall try to be an importial chairman."

The chair then announced that a committee composed of Hon, James H. Moyle, W. H. Dale and Albert Spencer, had been in consultation with the Populists on a fusion on the county ticket and legislative ticket. He would be pleased to have Mr. Moyle

Movie took the platform and lature—one senator and two representatives; one county commissioner, who shall be treated fair in the distribution of patronage, and the chief deputy in the office of the county recorder; the candidate for commissioner to be one of ability and integrity and a man who have table to the candidate for commissioner to be one of ability and integrity and a man who can be cheerfully voted for. Mr.
Moyle stated the Populists were in session and would make a report ere the convention reached that order.
On motion of John Green of the First the report was adopted, almost unantimously.

The convention then took a recess of twenty minutes to enable the precine's to elect delegates and committeemen, The result was as follows:

SENATORIAL NOMINATIONS.

The next order of business was the nominations of candidates for state senator. The first name placed before the convention was that of E. W. Wilson by J. W. Burton, who said, in part. "Mr. Chalrman: It would seem that unless the people of this county have lost their patriotism and love of country, this ought to be a Democratic year. The position of the two old parties has left no other alternative for every patriot than to vote the Demoevery patriot than to vote the Demo-cratic ticket." The speaker anathema-tized McKinley and the St. Louis plat-form and started in upon a lengthy eulogy of Bryan and the Chicago platenlogy of Bryan and the Chicago platform when he was interrupted by calls of "time," and "name your candidate."
The chairman also called attention to the fact his time had expired. Above the roar of interruptions, however, he shouted: "McKinley is the tool of the corporations, while Bryan is a man of the people. If no mistake is made here this afternoon the entire Democratic legislative ticket in this county will be elected. I have the honor to place before you for the nomination of state fore you for the nomination of state senator the name of the able, the cap-able, the Hon. E. W. Wilson." The mame of Judge Burton's candi-date was received with vociferous ap-

J. R. Letcher was next recognized by the chair for the purpose of nominating Dr. Mattie Hughes Cannon. Mr. Letcher tion of Joseph Bull, jr., and a country delegate seconded that of Joseph E. said: This is a day of anniversaries. Thirty-four years ago today our hand-some chairman was born. (Loud cheering and laughter.) Under the new condition of things in Utah and under condition of things in Utah and under the new constitution the women have the right of suffrage. My candidate is a graduate of two medical colleges, but yet withal a womanly woman. If nominated she will be elected and will go to the legislature with the sole idea of performing her duty to her constituents and of voting for a Democrat as United States senator who is an avowed advocate of the free and unlimited coinadvocate of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. Her name is Dr. Mattie Hughes Cannon, and I dare any man to vote against her." (Cheers and laughter.)

Mrs. Alice Butterworth seconded the nomination in a short speech.

JOHN T. CAINE.

John T. Caine was nominated in a short speech by W. H. Dale, who as-serted that his candidate was too well known to need a eulogy. "It would be superfluous," said Dale.

GEORGE A. WHITTAKER.

Delegate George E. Shair nominated George A. Whittaker and in the course of his speech said: "I ask the suffrage of this convention for a candidate who of this convention for a candidate who last fall made a remarkable run on the Democratic ticket. He is a faithful friend of the laboring man and in the Utah legislature will prove a true representative of the people." Mr. Blair then read a letter from the Uah Federalon of Labor endorsing the candidacy of Whittaker.

GEORGE ROMNEY, JR.,

S. W. Stewart nominated George Ronney, jr., whom he denominated a young and representative business man of honesty and integrity. On behalf of a majority of the country delegates Albert Spencer piaced in nomination the name of Horace Cum-mings, of East Mill Creek. Mr. Spencer said that Cummings represented not only the laboring farming interests, but also the educational.

D. O. RIDEOUT, JR.,

D. O. Rideout, jr., of Riverton, was placed in nomination by O. P. Miller, in a short speech. The nomination of John T. Caine was seconded by Robert Patrick.

John Stubbs seconded the nomination of Whittaker in a speech that caused some confusion and much laughter. Joseph E. Taylor seconded the nomination of Cains.

Dr. Cannon's nomination was seconded by Dr. Ellen B. Ferguson.
Wilson's nomination was seconded by Granville Gillett.

A delegate from Draper seconded the nomination of Ridsout. W. H. Dale seconded Whittaker's nomination.

Dr. Cannon's nomination was second-ed by F. S. Fernstone in a highly culogistic speach.
On behalf of the Seventh precinct

Delegate Gallagher seconded the nomi-nation of Romney.

In view of the efforts made toward fusion with the Populists the delegates, upon motion of W. H. Dale, were in-structed to vote only for four candistructed to vote only for four candi-dates and the chairman appointed a committee of two, consisting of members of the conference committee to act with a like committee from the Populists relative to filling the vacan-cy. The convention then took a recess for fifteen minutes.

HARBOUR ENDORSED.

While the secretaries were endeavoring to ascertain the vote for senators, J. H. Moyle announced that the Pop-ulist convention had nominated Ben-jamin A. Harbour for senator to fill the vacancy on the Democratic ticket as a result of fusion. Upon motion of Delegate Moyle the action of the Populists was endorsed.

Mr. Moyle next moved that in order to facilitate matters the vote on candidates be announced by the chairman of each municipal ward delegation. The motion prevailed.

W. H. Cassiday moved to proceed with the nomination of candidates for representatives, while the secretaries were counting the senatorial vote. The motion was laid on the table. The result of the first ballot was as

7 o'clock. NIGHT SESSION.

It was ten minutes after 7 o'clock It was ten minutes after 7 o'clock when the chairman rapped for order after the adjournment for supper. The delegates, however, as usual, were slow in reassembling. Hardly had order been obtained before the chair suggested the advisability of taking a further races of ten minutes to show the municipal wards time to finish preparing the ballots for representatives. The suggestion was not well received.

W. H. Cassady moved, in order to facilitate matters, that any candidate receiving less than one-third of the votes of the convention be dropped.

Hugh Watson opposed the motion. It Hugh Watson opposed the motion, it was said on the table. There was much confusion, but the chairman by constant rapping and appeals succeeded in obtaining a semblance of order.

A cardinal principle of Democratic doctrine is that only the best, adject and most incorruptible chizens should be chosen to fill positions of public trust; and in this connection we charge the present local officials with gross extravarance and an uter tack of caextravagance and an utter lack of ca-pacity in the conduct of business af-fairs of the county. MARCH ABANDONED.

THE SOLDIERS MAKE THE START, BUT ARE ORDERED BACK.

The Orders For Change of Stations of the Sixteenth Infantry From Fort Bouglas to Fort Sherman, Boise Barracks and Fort Spokane Made the March Impracticable at This Time.

Yesterday was an exciting day at Fort Douglas. The troops did not go on the practice march as had been arranged. They did, however, make the start. It was almost 7 o'clock when the regiment was formed on parade and headed for northern Utah. The long column of fours, the infantry "flying column," each A. T. Schroeder called attention to the past record as a Democrat, the ability to perform the duties of the place, of D. C. Dumbar.

Joseph M. Cohn nominated "a man who is not a man, because she is a second secon staff at the head, began the march out at a war-time gait and leaving a cloud of dust behind him. The troops had just of dust behind him. The troops had just turned into the road leading from the Rapid Transit terminus toward the dis when the courier dashed up and delivered a telegram to Colenel Theaker. A dispatch had been looked for since last night, when telegrams were received saying that the Sixteenth infantry would change stations with the Fourth infantry in Idaho. Colonel Theaker hastily tore open the envelope, and after carefully reading it, handed it to Adjutinit George, and, turning to the troops, said: "The practice marches of the Sixteenth infantry for its are over. Fours, right about—march." The news was received in sience, the troops being at "attention," but never was a message received by soldlers more gladly.

MARCHED THEM BACK AGAIN.

MARCHED THEM BACK AGAIN.

The column was marched back to the parade ground, where it had formed but a few minutes before, and dismissed. The wagon trains were hastily unloaded, the rolls unpacked, and the Mo-mile practice march that was to have been and was not, became a reminiscence. Following is the bicgram deliveral by the courier:

"By order of Colonel Theaker:
"CHARLES P. GEORGE.
"First Lieutemant and Adjutant, Sixteenth Infantry, Post Adjutant." WILL WAIT FOR THE COLORED GEN-TLEMEN.

There is a good deal of speculation as to when the regiment will leave the post. It is said that the troops will await the arrival of the colored gentlemen from Norts Bayard and Huachica before leaving for Idano.

The posts to be occupied by the Sixteenth are Boise barracks, one company; Fort Shafman, four companies, headquarters and band, and Fort Spokane, Washington, three companies. It is uselies to speculate at the present time as to what companies will be assigned to each of them stations. The matter has been left to Colonel Thesker by the department commander, and it will probabily be several days before the details are made.

made. The date of departure will no doubt be The date of departure will no doubt be inside of two weeks.

It is though that the change will not interfere with the proposed athletic competition to come off October 2,4 and 5, on the grounds of the Denver Athletic club. A telegram was sent to department head-quarters just evening, asking if the regiment would be ordered to leave the post before the date of the competition. The fort team was training as usual yesterdar. Lieutenant Dunning, who has been on a twenty days leave, returned to the post yesterday and will leave for Logan college, to assume the duties of professor is military science and tactics.
